

Keywords/Questions:

Notes:

&lt;form&gt;

&lt;form&gt;: used to submit information through our website. It has a closing tag.

&lt;label&gt;

-When we write form and then touch the form button that comes floating from above we get &lt;form class="" action="index.html" method="post"&gt; &lt;/form&gt;

&lt;input&gt;

-Some of the elements we use within &lt;form&gt; &lt;/form&gt; are:

type="text"

-&lt;label&gt;: used to write the text we want to display before the blank. It has a closing tag.

-&lt;input&gt;: used to input data to the form. It is a self-closing tag.

type="date"

-type: an attribute of input used to designate the type of data we are going to input. E.g. :-

type="password"

-text: used to input texts like our name.

type="color"

-color: used to choose color.

type="range"

-password: can't see what we are inputting. It is seen as -checkbox: ☐ type="radio"

-submit: a submit button -file: used to submit a file

Choose file No file chosen type="submit"

-date: used to choose a date -range: used to select a range.

type="file"

-radio: used to select from a collection. ☐

Summary:

&lt;form&gt;: used to ask for information through our website. It has a closing tag.

&lt;label&gt;: used to write the text we want to display before the blank. It has a closing tag.

&lt;input&gt;: used to ask for input.

-type attribute: denotes the type of input we are going to have:

-text

-checkbox

-file

-color

-range

-date

-password

-radio

-submit